Policies and Procedures for Social Fraternity and Sorority Organizations at Clayton State University

I. Definition of Social Fraternity and Sorority

Social fraternities and sororities are student organizations distinguished by Greek-letter names, often called “Greek” organizations because of this designation, whose primary purpose is to cultivate members scholastically, socially, and civically. Fraternities are organizations for men designed to promote scholarship and leadership, stimulate social interaction, and offer the opportunity for development of meaningful relationships. Similarly, sororities are organizations for women which promote scholarship, service to campus and community, development of strong long-lasting friendships, and promotion of leadership opportunities.

Auxiliary Groups: Clayton State University does not authorize, recognize or approve of the existence of any Chapter affiliated Auxiliary Organization (sweethearts, diamonds, little sisters/brothers, courts, kittens, etc). Students are encouraged to report any solicitation of any fraternity and sorority to join an Auxiliary Organization (sweethearts, diamonds, little sisters/brothers, courts, kittens, etc.) to the Greek Life Coordinator immediately.

Auxiliary Organizations are not the same as a fraternity or sorority and should not be considered and/or treated as such.

II. Criteria for Membership

Clayton State University requires that a potential initiate or candidate for membership be a matriculating undergraduate student of the University and be in good academic and judiciary standing. Each candidate must have earned at least a 2.50 CSU semester grade point average the semester prior to consideration and have maintained at least a 2.50 CSU cumulative grade point average. Additional membership requirements are governed by the individual fraternity and sorority national membership intake guidance. Clayton State University respects the right of the recognized fraternity and sorority chapters to select its membership as outlined in its membership intake procedures, so long as these procedures do not violate state and federal discrimination laws.

III. Governing/Coordinating Councils

- Interfraternity Council (IFC) - Governing council for national fraternities

Clayton State University asks that all fraternities and sororities uphold the mission, purpose and policies outlined by their national constitution including general mandates and expectations regarding behavior and academic achievement.

If Clayton State University determines that a fraternity or sorority is not acting in the best interest of the community (example: violating a University policy, inappropriate behavior, etc.) or are defiant and/or non-compliant with University administration, the status of the fraternity or sorority as a recognized organization may be terminated.

Rush/Information Session Postings

Effective February 2007, all fraternities and sororities are required to post and circulate information regarding their upcoming Rush or Information Session a minimum of five (5) business days before the scheduled date. No fraternity or sorority will be permitted to host a Rush or an Information Session (and under extreme circumstances – membership in-take) without the aforementioned requirement being met.

Standard Academic Expectation

In instances where the chapter's cumulative grade point average falls below a 2.50, the fraternity or sorority will be notified and placed on temporary academic probation. During the temporary academic probation period, the University and the fraternity or sorority Advisor will collaborate to develop a plan of action to help the chapter increase the cumulative grade point average.

Failure to meet the minimum grade point average for consecutive semesters may result in suspension. Clayton State University will calculate each chapter's cumulative grade point average at the beginning of each new semester.
