Clayton State Student John Beale Dies in Afghanistan

Clayton State University History major John C. Beale, 39, a resident of Riverdale and an employee of the Clayton County Water Authority, was one of three Georgia Army National Guardsmen killed in action in Kapisa Province in northeast Afghanistan last Thursday.

His obituary appeared in the Clayton News Daily and the AJC... <http://www.news-daily.com/main.asp?SectionID=2&SubSectionID=&ArticleID=27686> and http://www.ajc.com/metro/content/metro/stories/2009/06/05/3_georgia_guardsmen_killed.html.

“He was an excellent student who did not hesitate to debate his views during classroom discussions. I will miss him,” says Clayton State director of the Office of International Programs John Parkerson, who taught Mr. Beale in SoSc2501.

“He was a classmate of mine last fall and I came to know him as a good man,” adds Clayton State student Maureen Keillor, who, along with husband Howard Keillor and fellow Clayton State student Chris Petersen, will be going on the Patriot Guard Ride accompanying his funeral on Saturday.

Funeral arrangements are as follows (thanks to Clayton State History Society President Patrick Coleman for this information);

Upcoming Events

Clayton State Summer Athletic Camps – Running Through the End of July

The Clayton State University summer athletics camps have started for 2009. The athletics camps will run through Friday, July 31 and are designed to provide the highest quality instruction in a safe, fun and socially enriching environment for children ages six to 17. The primary goal is for all campers to enjoy themselves while learning and improving their skills.

This year's individual sport full-day and half-day camps include; cheerleading, boys and girls basketball, soccer, speed development, and tennis. The cheerleading camp (June 29 to July 3), plus the soccer, tennis and speed camps, are co-ed. Separate camps are held in basketball for both boys and girls.

Starting today, co-ed combination sport camps are being held in the following sports; soccer/speed, soccer/basketball, tennis/soccer, tennis/speed, and tennis/basketball. There are also two overnight soccer team camps, one for boys (July 30 to Aug. 2) and one for girls (July 19 to July 23).

Clayton State is a NCAA Division II school that competes in the Peach Belt Conference. All camps are on the Clayton State campus.

Daily activities are led by Clayton State Laker head and assistant coaches and focus on character building aspects of each individual sport, including self-esteem, discipline and responsibility. The Clayton State athletic camps combine small group instruction as well as game play to ensure development of fundamental skills and game knowledge. Full day instruction runs from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m., however, supervision is provided upon request from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.

For more information, please contact the Clayton State Department of Athletics at (678) 466-4678, Monday through Friday from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. For specific camp details and profiles on each head coach, go to <http://athletics.clayton.edu>.

School of Business Seminar Addresses New Changes in Labor Law, June 19

On Jan. 29, President Barack Obama signed into law the Lilly Ledbetter Fair Pay Act of 2009. The Act overturns the controversial 2007 Supreme Court decision in Ledbetter v. Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company and amends not only Title VII of the Civil Rights Act, but also the Americans with Disabilities Act, the Rehabilitation Act, and the Age Discrimination in Employment Act. As a result, it applies not only to gender discrimination, but also discrimination based on race, national origin, religion, age, and disability.

To learn more about the impact the Fair Play Act and other employment law changes will have on Georgia businesses, register for the Clayton State University School of Business' Labor and Employment Law Seminar and Certification on Friday, June 19, from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. in the classroom of the School of Business Building on the Clayton State main campus in Morrow.

The seminar will be taught by Dr. Judith Ogden, Clayton State University associate professor of Accounting, and S.L. Macey, a former judge from Indianapolis, In., and a graduate of Indiana University Law School who is currently an arbitrator in Colorado with Judicial Arbitrator Group. The cost of the seminar is $99 and includes free parking, continental breakfast and lunch.

For more information, call Dr. Michael Tidwell at (678) 466-4546 or go to: <http://business.clayton.edu/registration.htm> to register for the Labor and Employment Law Seminar.

Alumni Association to Sponsor Clayton State Night at Turner Field, June 26

Clayton State University alumni and friends, mark your calendars, it's time for a special trip to the ballpark.

The Clayton State Alumni Association will sponsor Clayton State Night at the Atlanta Braves' Turner Field on Friday, June 26. First pitch will be 7:35 p.m., as Atlanta faces off against the Boston Red Sox in the highly anticipated (with or without Tom Glavine or John Smoltz) interleague match-up. A fireworks show will follow the Friday night contest.

Tickets will be available at a discounted $15 per person rate, which is $7 off the regular gate price for tickets in the Upper Box. Dues-paying Alumni Association members will have the opportunity to receive an additional discount.

Tickets are limited, and the Alumni Association asks that alumni and friends to please RSVP as soon as possible. For more information about purchasing tickets, please contact Gid Rowell, director of Alumni Relations, at (678) 466-4477 or by email at gidrowell@clayton.edu.

Two Clayton State “Alumni” Featured in NARA Civil War Workshop, June 27

Two of Clayton State University’s distinguished historian “alumni” will be making presentations at an upcoming workshop on the Civil War, to be held at the National Archives and Records Administration’s (NARA) Southeast Region Archives on Saturday, June 27.

Although technically not a Clayton State alumnus, retired Professor of History Dr. Gene Hatfield will be speaking on “The Atlanta Campaign and the Battle of Jonesboro” at 2 p.m. on June 27 as one of the two lecturers in a day of information at the NARA facility, 5780 Jonesboro Rd., Morrow. (Also lecturing at 1 p.m. will be journalist Alan Huffman, author of the new book, “Sultana: Surviving the Civil War, Prison, and the Worst Maritime Disaster in American History.”)

The morning of June 27 at NARA will be devoted to a Workshop on Resources for Study of the Civil War. Among the presenters for the workshop will be Clayton State alumnus, graduate student and NARA archives technician Shane Bell. His 10:30 a.m. presentation will be on “Civil War Records Online” and will focus on the efforts of the National Archives to provide greater access to its vast holdings via the Internet.

The workshop, which is sponsored by NARA and the Friends of the National Archives – Southeast Region (www.friendsnas.org), will run from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. Included in the $10 registration fee are Hatfield’s and Huffman’s (who will also have a book signing) lectures, four resource presentations (including Bell’s), lunch, an ice cream social at 3 p.m., and a special presentation by the 104th Illinois Volunteer Infantry. Checks should be made payable to Friends of the National Archives – Southeast Region and mailed to; The Civil War, FNAS, 5780 Jonesboro Rd., Morrow, Ga., 30260. For further information, call 770-968-2100 or go to www.archives.gov/southeast/.

ADP and Timesheet Date Changes Delayed

Changes are coming, but later rather than sooner. The ADP conversion has been delayed until Aug. 8.

The two sets of timesheets that include the June 12 and June 26 pay end date are to be turned in on the actual end date as you have done in the past. There will be no estimation of time on either payroll. Details on future dates for the conversion will be coming out shortly.

If there are any questions, please contact Mary Coursey or Sonya Holtzclaw.

First Annual Orientation Evening Showcase – Calling All Talents/Performers!

This summer, the Office of Orientation and New Student Programs will be introducing Clayton State’s first two-day, overnight orientation program for incoming freshman students. We are very excited to incorporate more of the University community into the program as every faculty and staff member is valuable in “connecting” with our new students early.

We would like to invite you to be a part of the Clayton State Connection with students. How, you ask?

We are calling on all talents to be a part of our First Orientation Evening Showcase! If you can sing, dance, act, or have any other talents to perform, please join us in having lots of fun at our first talent showcase. Individuals and/or departments of all talent levels are invited to participate (i.e., you do not have to meet “American Idol” finalist criteria). We want this to be a fun, interactive program and an opportunity for you and/or your department to connect with students. Students often gravitate to people and departments that they can remember, even if they are first reminded with a funny song.

Our program will be held on Thursday, June 25, 2009 and Thursday, July 30, 2009 at 9 p.m. in the SAC Ballroom. Performances may range between three and seven minutes.

If you would like to participate in this event, please email Barbre Skwira, assistant director of Orientation and New Student Programs, at BarbreSkwira@clayton.edu. Please include your name, email address, contact phone number and what you would like to perform.

Please submit your information via e-mail by no later than Friday, June 12. Once we receive your submission, specific program details will be sent to you.
