Frequently Asked Questions

Who May Participate?

Spivey Hall's Summer Music Camp is designed for both boys and girls who will be in 4th – 7th grade in the 2019-2020 school year. Participation is not limited to previous choral experience; however, students need to be able to sing on pitch (in tune) before camp begins. Music teacher recommendations are required. Camp size is limited to a maximum of 45 students. Don't miss this opportunity!

Where Will Camp be Held?

Summer Music Camp will be located primarily at Spivey Hall, on the campus of Clayton State University. Activities may also take place in surrounding campus buildings. Go to <http://www.spiveyhall.org/about/> and click "Directions" for a map. All participants will check in and out from Spivey Hall each day of Camp.

What if my Child Has Never Sung in a Choir?

Don't worry if your child doesn't have choral music experience (or any musical experience)! Participants simply need to be able to match pitch when they sing. If your child enjoys keeping a beat, Spivey Hall's Summer Music Camp will offer him/her a wonderful well-rounded introduction to the marvels of music-making.

How Much Does it Cost? (visit our website for early bird and sibling discounts)

- $160.00 per camper. Due in full before the registration deadline of Friday, May 31.
- $25.00 per camper late registration fee applies after June 3. Acceptance is not guaranteed and will be considered on a space-available basis.
- $10.00 per camper, optional solo opportunity fee.
- $60.00 per camper per week, optional After Camp Care program or $20.00 per day.

For More Information please email spiveyhalleducation@clayton.edu or call (678) 466-4491

What Will Participants Do at Camp?

This five-day camp will create a community of young people who enjoy singing with others and want to become better singers and musicians. Students will work with members of the Spivey Hall Children's Choir Program staff to develop correct vocal technique, choral musicianship, ensemble singing, and more.

The Spivey Hall Summer Music Camp emphasizes total musical development through a broad range of activities. Students will participate in chorus, a percussion ensemble, play tone chimes, engage in several folk dances, and may participate in a piano lab, class guitar, drama, and other creative musical activities. Large and small group rehearsals will be conducted throughout the week, culminating in a free public concert on Friday afternoon, showcasing the campers' talents. Students also have the opportunity to prepare a vocal or piano solo and receive one-on-one coaching during the week. See the "Solo Performance Opportunity" form for more information.

When Should I Drop-Off/Pick-Up my Child?

Camp begins at 9:00 AM and doors to Spivey Hall will not open until 8:30 AM. To ensure their safety, please do not drop off children before 8:30 AM. Camp will conclude each day at 3:00 PM. Please pick up your children as close to 3:00 as possible. Children not picked up by 3:30PM will be subject to dismissal from Camp with no refund of registration fees. After Camp Care is available until 5pm for an additional cost.

What Will After Camp Participants do?

After Camp Care begins at 3pm and ends at 5pm. Camp Counselors will provide campers with snacks and engage them in games, songs, or similar activities. Campers must be picked up by 5pm or incur late fees of $5 per 15 minutes.

What Should my Child Take to Camp?

Participants should come to camp with a lunch, beverage, and positive attitude each day. Spivey Hall will provide music, instruments, and T-shirts for participants; students will wear the t-shirts at Friday's concert.

Is There a Dress Code?

Participants should dress comfortably while abiding by their school's dress code; however, they need to wear shoes with backs. (No flip flops, please.) Tank tops, pajamas, and clothes with offensive language or pictures are not permitted in Spivey Hall. Please note that the temperature in Spivey Hall is quite cool and participants will usually eat lunch outside. Therefore, please send your child to Camp with a sweater or sweatshirt each day so that s/he may be comfortable.

When is the Concert?

Participants of the Spivey Hall 2019 Summer Music Camp will give a free demonstration concert in Spivey Hall on Friday, June 14 at 2:30 PM to showcase their talents. All families and friends are welcome to attend. No tickets are required, and seating will be general admission. Students will need to wear jeans, closed-toed shoes, and their camp T-shirt at the concert.

A reception will take place after the concert for families, participants, Camp staff, and volunteers. Spivey Hall will provide beverages; we ask that each participant's family provide one finger-food dessert item (such as cookies or brownies—no cake, pies, or puddings that require utensils) for the reception. Please drop off desserts Friday morning with your child.

What are Solo Study Opportunities?

Interested students may also bring a prepared vocal or piano solo to receive professional coaching sessions. Students will work with a professional musician on musicality and performance skills during the week. Pitch, rhythms, and/or text will not be taught during coaching sessions. Students must be able to perform the piece before they come to camp. Students will be selected on a first come-first served, space-available basis. There will be a $10 charge for participating in this opportunity – no refunds.

Recital: Students will have the opportunity to perform in Spivey Hall for their peers. A small number of students will be selected to perform during the Friday afternoon demonstration concert. Solo Opportunity Registration is part of the online registration process.

Piano Guidelines: A selection from the classical, folksong, or art song repertoire is highly recommended. A selection from the student's method book is appropriate. Students must bring music with them each day to camp. This is limited to piano only.

Vocal Guidelines: Once students have registered, parents will be sent a link to a website. Students will be assigned a song and must go to the website to learn it. Students should be able to sing the song and have the text memorized before camp begins. Refunds will not be given to unprepared students.

What are the Expectations for Behavior and Health?

Participants are expected to exhibit kind, responsible behavior during camp. Spivey Hall reserves the right to dismiss any child from Camp for disruptive behavior, and the parent/guardian is responsible for picking up the child from Camp, with no refund, in the event that such a dismissal occurs.

Participants are also expected to be in good health at Camp, with current vaccines. Spivey Hall is fully wheel-chair accessible; individuals requiring disability-related accommodations may contact Clayton State University's Disability Resource Center at (678) 466-5445.
