New Building Authorized

Clayton Junior College is to have a new classroom building.

The one million dollar construction project was authorized Wednesday by the Board of Regents in their monthly meeting on the recommendation of Chancellor George L. Simpson, Jr.

Design of the building, which will be devoted to instructional space for art and music, general classroom space and faculty offices, was awarded to Bothwell, Jenkins, Slay and Associates, Architects, of Decatur. The same firm designed the current buildings of the college.

According to President Downs, the additional classroom building was requested because of the rapid growth of the college--enrollment last fall was up 90 percent over enrollment in the fall quarter of 1969, making Clayton the fastest growing institution in the University System.

In accordance with the Board of Regents' policy in developing community colleges, the original facilities of the college were financed through a bond issue passed by the citizens of Clayton County. Funds for the new classroom facility and further expansion will be provided by the Board of Regents.

Seminar Series Introduced

The Department of Mathematics is implementing a series of in-service seminars for members of the mathematics faculty and other faculty members of the college. The first seminar will be held Tuesday, April 20th at 3:00 P.M. in Room C-55 on a subject of general interest -- "Construction and Evaluation of Classroom Tests" -- and the faculty-at-large is invited to take part.

New Counseling Office Opens

The Office of the Dean of Students has opened a counseling office in Room D-13 of the Student Activities Building. Mrs. Lucy Champion is holding office hours there every day from 10:00 A.M. until 2:00 P.M., and on Thursday evenings until 8:30 P.M.

College Welcomes Clayton Schoolmen

Clayton County Superintendent of Schools, Ernest L. Stroud, Jr., members of his administrative staff, and several high school principals from Clayton County will be the guests of President Downs for lunch Monday, April 19th.

COMING EVENTS

Friday, April 15

Dr. Joseph K. Davis opens Clayton's Lyceum Series with a lecture on "Myth and Modern Man" at 8:30 P.M. in B-15.

Tuesday, April 20

Mathematics Department seminar, "Construction and Evaluation of Classroom Tests", at 3:00P.M. in C-55.

Tuesday, April 20

Professor Ralph W. Hidy, an economic historian from Harvard University, will lecture on "Businessmen as Generators of Change" at 8:00 p.m. in Dean Sage Auditorium on the Atlanta University campus. His lecture is open to the public, and will be part of a series of seminars on "Business in the 20th Century" which will be conducted on the Spelman campus during the week.

Friday, April 23

Student Activities Series movie, "Take the Money and Run" with Woody Allen, shown at 7:00 P.M. and 9:00 P.M. in B-15.

INTRODUCING

MISS MIRIAM PATRICIA PERRY joined the faculty of Clayton Junior College in September, 1970 as a temporary instructor of biology.

Miss Perry, who was born in La Paz, Bolivia, holds a Bachelor of Arts Degree in biology from Washburn University, Topeka, Kansas, where she was a Whiting Scholar, won departmental honors in biology and graduated Magna Cum Laude.

From 1960 to 1963, Miss Perry was a science teacher at Rosedale Junior and Senior High School, Kansas City, Kansas.

In 1964, she earned her Masters of Education Degree from the University of Georgia, and joined the faculty of the Desert Division of Bakersfield Junior College, China Lake, California, as an assistant professor of biology.

In 1965, Miss Perry returned to the University of Georgia, where she was a graduate teaching assistant in botany, and is currently a candidate for the Ph.D. Degree in that field.

She is a member of the American Association for the Advancement of Science, the American Institute of Biological Sciences, the Botanical Society of America, and the American Association of Forestry.

Miss Perry currently makes her home in Forest Park.

ON CAMPUS

On Sunday, May 2 from 2:00 to 5:00 p.m., the college will host the community-at-large during Clayton's second annual Open House. Last year's Open House was a tremendous success despite the rain which fell that day, and it is hoped that a later date this year will help insure fair skies.

During the afternoon, the facilities of the college will be open and staffed to welcome visitors and supply information about the college. A full program has also been planned by the faculty to demonstrate the operations of the college to the public, and refreshments will be served visitors throughout the afternoon in the college dining area. Students will serve as informal guides -- greeting visitors as they arrive in the parking lots, distributing programs, and manning central "Information Stations".

The Open House is being coordinated through the Office of Community Services, which will be in charge of the printed program, signs for exhibits and name tags for all Clayton Junior College personnel. Faculty and staff are urged to advise that office of all signs and name tags they will need, and of any modifications or additions to the following listing of planned events:

Administration Building

All administrative offices will be open and staffed.

The computer center will be programmed to administer and grade a simple psychological test to visitors.

Audio-Visual Building

B-10 Slide Presentation, Biology

B-11 Slide presentations, English, illustrating studies of and Homer and Frost's "Stopping by the Woods on a Snowy Evening"

B-12

Physical Education Building

E-31 Presentation of the drug problem through slides, film and discussion

Trampoline demonstrations
Tour of facilities

The cooperation of all members of the college community is requested to help make a week from Sunday the best possible welcome for the public which the college serves.

Monday, April 26

The Educational Supervisor and a member of the Board of Examiners of Nurses for Georgia will be on campus during the day observing Clayton's Nursing Program.

Thursday, April 29

Clayton will host a group of Georgia school psychologists and psychometrists at a workshop conducted by Mary Meeka of Loyola University, Los Angeles, California. The workshop has been arranged by Dr. Richard H. Kicklighter, Coordinator of School Psychologist Services, Georgia Department of Education.

The group will meet in B-15 from 10:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon, and from 1:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m., with lunch in the private dining room.

Friday, April 30
