

Evelyn Swanson – Sr Director, Learning and Organizational Development

- Evelyn is responsible for the talent strategy and execution at Core & Main, a publicly held leading industrial distributor. At Core & Main, she leads the development and delivery for over 30 instructor-led courses and has created a team of over 80 facilitators through the network of subject matter experts across the 50 states that Core & Main waterworks and fire protection serve. She also leads the development of leaders and successors through the implementation of 360s, succession planning and talent reviews, key talent projects and three separate recent college graduate development programs for rising talent. Additionally, she leads all engagement and recognition programs across the company.
- For 30 years, Evelyn has developed team and learning solutions. She has developed and coached leaders at all levels in team dynamics, communication, leadership, problem solving and decision making and has facilitated hundreds of management and executive sessions. She is a certified instructor for many world class programs such as MBTI, DISC, Leadership Strategies facilitation, Covey, Situational Leadership II, Zenger-Folkman's 360, and received her designation as a CPC, certified professional coach. Evelyn received her Bachelor of Science Degree at Georgia College & State University and did Master's work in Adult Education at the University of North Carolina-Charlotte.
- Evelyn and her husband, Bob, live part time in midtown Atlanta and part time on Saint Simons Island.