

What Can I Do With A Major In.....Psychology and Human Services?

Major Description: The Bachelor of Science in Psychology and Human Services (B.S.) program is firmly grounded in the discipline of psychology while at the same time stressing realistic career opportunities in human services fields for the bachelor’s degree graduate.

Some Related Job Titles*	Possible Employers	Additional Resources for more information:
Adult Learning Trainer Advocate (Child, Elderly, etc.) Case Manager Customer Service Representative Data Analyst Human Resources Trainer Insurance Claims Manager Insurance Claims Underwriter Insurance Claims Underwriter or Manager Market Researcher Mental Health Agency Administrator Public Relations Representative Social Researcher Teacher	Board of Health Court Systems Health and Human Services Healthcare providers/hospitals Large Companies Local Government Agencies Market Research Firms National Headquarters of non-profit agencies Non-profit Agencies (United Way, etc.) Psychiatric Hospitals Religious Institutions Retirement Communities Schools (K-12) Volunteer Agencies	Clayton State University homepage https://www.clayton.edu/degrees/bachelor/psychology/index.php Books-Career Services Library Occupational Outlook Handbook https://www.bls.gov/ooh/ O*NET http://www.onetonline.org/ FOCUS 2 https://www.focus2career.com/Portal/Login.cfm?SID=933 (use the access code “lakerpride” to create an account)

Primary Skills Needed: Appreciate diversity, teach a skill, understand and respect feelings, listen objectively, communicate oral and written, identify resources, assess needs, identify problems, formulate questions for clarification, and critical thinking & analysis

* This list is a sample of options. There are many more titles and employers from which to choose, this is just a sample of a few. When considering job titles for yourself, consider your skills, knowledge, and experience level. If you are unaware of your personal skill set, schedule a meeting with a career counselor at the phone number listed above. We look forward to helping you discover your “best fit” in a career based on your interests.