

CLAYTON STATE UNIVERSITY

Film Studio v3

Clayton State University's Film Studio is located just 10 miles from Hartsfield-Jackson International Airport. This Studio is the only space of its kind in the state associated with a higher education institution and one of the few in the nation. Courses such as film crew training, film production, theater, and dance are hosted here and take priority as instructional activities for the University. The facility is also available for a variety of rental purposes:

indie films, feature film productions, green screen scenes, photo shoots, rehearsals, auditions, table reads, pre-production, workshops, exhibitions, screenings, special events, and meetings
