Students can view their individual cost of attendance on their DUCK Financial Aid portal. To help with planning for costs, we have included above the Cost of Attendance for 2021-2022 for an undergraduate in-state student and undergraduate out-of-state student living on campus. Please note the Cost of Attendance is an estimate of the costs to attend Clayton State University. You will have some variances based on your individual situation.

Notes:

¹Tuition is based on 15+ credit hours, which is the recommended course load for timely graduation. A 12-credit hour load is considered full-time.

²Room and board costs range by building, room, and chosen meal plan. For actual housing charges, visit <https://clayton.edu/housing/>. For Meal Plan charges, visit <https://clayton.edu/housing/meal-plans>.

³Book costs are an estimate. The actual costs per semester will vary based on course requirements. Students purchase books independently; only students using Bookstore Bucks will see charges on their Tuition Bill.
