

Clayton State University

Relationship Statement

Clayton State University will provide advisory guidance, direction, and support for all fraternities and sororities.

Clayton State University asks that all fraternities and sororities uphold the mission, purpose and policies outlined by their national constitution including general mandates and expectations regarding behavior and academic achievement.

If Clayton State University determines that a fraternity or sorority is not acting in the best interest of the community (example: violating a University policy, inappropriate behavior, etc.) or are defiant and/or non-compliant with University administration, the status of the fraternity or sorority as a recognized organization may be terminated.
