      d. Questions were solicited.
         i. Vice-Chair Keebler commended the President for the condition of the university grounds and landscaping ii. Vice-Chair Keebler asked about the status of the Graduate Council.
            a) Robert Vaughan stated things are moving but the council felt a bit rushed to get things done this academic year.
               i) The Graduate Council’s concern is membership.
                  (a). President Hynes asked if a model such as at West Georgia College was considered where each program head is represented by the chair of the committee.
(i). Robert Vaughan stated that the issue is that coordinators are appointed, not elected.

(ii). Chair Miller noted that to date there is an over-representation of appointed members, so the attempt was to strike a balance without too large a committee.

(a). Provost Crafton noted that he had served a version of the committee elsewhere with 18-20 members which functioned well.

(iii). Discussion regarding cultural changes within committees followed.

b) Chair Miller stated updated by-laws from the Graduate Council will be received after May.

i). The item will come to the Faculty Senate in the fall.

2.0 Academic Affairs – Robert Vaughan

a) The faculty response rate for the Quality Enhancement Plan (QEP) Survey has been good.

i). Responses will be accepted through Wednesday.

ii). If anyone has an interest in serving on the committee please signify by Thursday.

Quorum established 11:21 a.m.

2. Faculty Affairs Committee (FAC) - Faculty Handbook – J. Braun, Chair

a. Section 206 Pre- and Post-Tenure Review

i. Jim Braun indicated changes made in this section related to timing for adding evidence or clarification of faculty portfolios.

a. Senator Musolf noted that committees at times received poorly organized portfolios which were sent back to the faculty member.

i) Jim Braun noted that the committee chair should examine the portfolio for organization

a) If a disorganized portfolio comes to the committee Jim Braun stated that there is no going back, in his opinion.

(i). The culture should be that a good portfolio is turned in or accept the consequences.

(ii). Chair Miller noted that some items can be added for clarification after the submission deadline, but with poor organization it is difficult to determine which item is missing.

(a). Chair Miller suggested the term ‘minimal clarification’ be used.

(i). Senator Williams stated that it is important to allow clarifying Information.

(a). Perhaps once the deadline is passed that the candidate should not touch the portfolio and contents can only be added by the Dean.

(b). Using ‘minimal’ or any qualifier is open to interpretation.

b) Jim Braun stated there is a section which says how to organize the portfolio.

i) Senator Musolf stated that this section needs to be explicit.

(a). Jim Braun stated it needs to be explicit for both pre-and post-tenure.

(b). Provost Crafton stated that if a Dean wants additional clarification it should be added to the portfolio but kept as an addition.
c) Senator Musolf asked how a disorganized portfolio should be handled.
   (i). Jim Braun stated with a letter from the committee.
   (ii). Robert Vaughan stated that ‘disorganized’ needs to be in reference to instructions for organizing the portfolio.
   (iii). Discussion followed regarding guidelines for the portfolio.
      (a) Robert Vaughan cautioned that a portfolio should not be turned down for organization because the evidence may be present, but not easily identified.
         (i). It could form the basis for an appeal.
      (b) The accepted Clayton State CV format is Digital Measures.
         (i). There are problems with Digital Measures and it may be replaced which will obviate the need for clarification.
      (c). Chair Miller stated the next Senate should take up the acceptable CV format.

b. Motion: Vice-Chair Keebler motioned to modify 205.04.2 Promotion and Tenure Portfolio by adding an item number 10 which states, “The portfolio must follow any additional guidelines published by the Faculty Member’s College.” Second by Kemp.
   i. Motion passed unanimously.

   c. Senator Musolf stated that once the portfolio is turned in it should have no further modifications.
      i). Senator Williams stated the guidelines will help Promotion and Tenure committees. ii). Discussion regarding allowing changes to the portfolio once submitted and late submission.
      iii). Motion: Vice Chair Keebler moved that 205.04.2 Responsibilities and Timelines in the Promotion and Tenure Process be amended under 1. a. to state, “once the portfolio has been given to the Department Chair, the candidate may not add additional material unless requested.” Seconded by Butterfield.
         a). Motion passed unanimously.

d. Discussion regarding strongly encouraging faculty to submit the portfolio to a senior colleague in the department prior to the submission date for the review.

   ii. Motion: Pending no further discussion Vice Chair Keebler moved to accept section 206.01 as amended.
      a. Discussion regarding the process of pre-tenure and post-tenure review.
         i) Deficiencies can be noted and still make good progress toward tenure.
      b. Motion withdrawn.
      c. Motion: Senator Williams moved to amend 206.01.01 as follows: Faculty members are strongly encouraged to consult with their administrator or senior colleagues prior to submitting their portfolio. Following the due date for submission, the Faculty Member may not make any further modification to the portfolio. Seconded by Ott.
         i). Motion passed unanimously.

d. Motion: Vice Chair Keebler moved to accept the remainder of the pre-tenure section as written. Seconded by Kemp.

i). Motion passed unanimously.

iii. Senator Musolf noted that the language needs to be consistent between pre- and post-tenure review.

a). Robert Vaughan noted that post-tenure review is different from pre-tenure.

iv. Senator Musolf asked what happens if a portfolio is not reviewed by the P & T committee?

a). Senator Williams stated if the portfolio is not reviewed for promotion then it should be withdrawn and resubmitted.

b) Discussion regarding which years are counted for promotion and the portfolio.

i). Provost Crafton noted that reviews are at 5 year intervals.

b). Chair Miller asked, since the clock stopped at the beginning of the fifth year because the portfolio is due in August, the fifth year can be used in post-tenure review.

v. Motion: Senator Musolf moved that section 206.6 be accepted as modified.

Seconded by Kemp.

a). Motion passed unanimously.

b). Section 405 of the faculty handbook will be voted on electronically.
