Welcome to Graduate Studies

Graduate education prepares:

- scholars in the arts, humanities, and the sciences who maintain and advance our understanding of the human condition;
- scientists, engineers, and other professionals needed by industry, government, and universities to conduct the nation's research and development; and
- scholars in all disciplines who become the faculties of our colleges and universities.

At Clayton State University, the mission of graduate education is to stimulate, encourage and support efforts that build national distinction and that are characterized by innovation and by increasing contribution to the social, cultural, economic, health and technological development needs of Georgia and the nation. The University is committed to excellence, innovation and collaboration in research and in the preparation of professionals for the highest levels of practice.

Open House

March 2, 2010

The Clayton State University School of Graduate Studies will be holding its next monthly informational Open House on Tuesday, March 2 from 5:30 p.m. to 7:00 p.m. in room 101 in the University's Harry S. Downs Center.

The Open House will give prospective graduate students a chance to learn more about the Master of Arts in Liberal Studies, Master of Arts in Teaching English, Master of Arts in Teaching Mathematics, Master of Business Administration, Master of Health Administration, and Master of Science in Nursing. The Clayton State School of Graduate Studies regularly holds open houses on the second Tuesday evening of each month.
