I want to make people feel as if they do not have to be afraid to speak up against the uncertainties of the environment around them. Everyone has a voice. Everyone has a chance to make a difference. I want to teach people that they, not me, are the ones who are making the changes and carrying themselves to a higher level of excellence. By voting for me, I will create leaders of today and not tomorrow. I want everyone to feel loved and accepted by many.
