If you have you know we declare things we want and hope that change will occur. Well, if I am elected to be a member of CSU's student government association you won't need luck on your side to have your voice heard. I am and will always be dedicated to making a difference at our university no matter how small. You might be wondering how I might do this, well the simple answer is by embracing change as well as taking into consideration each, and every one of our unique experiences as students. I will make it my priority to develop positive change that will benefit us all and help make these next few years enjoyable!
